2010 Summer Student Fellowships Available For Bright, Motivated Students

Who Have Finished Undergraduate Sophomore, Junior or Senior Year or first year graduate or medical school and are Interested in Neuroscience Research

- Are you in the process of deciding if neuroscience research is to be part of your career plans?
- Would you like the opportunity to work with & be trained by an established, experienced scientist in the field of brain research?

IES Brain Research Foundation Summer Fellows will receive a stipend of $2500 and are expected to spend 8-10 weeks (full time) during summer 2010, being trained in a first rate U.S. laboratory.

Applicants should arrange training with and be accepted by a faculty sponsor, who is the head of a first rate laboratory at: a University, Medical School or Research Institute in the U.S.A.

If you are interested, see above contact information.

The 2010 application deadline is: March 15th
